CAREER FRAMEWORK FOR NEONATAL NURSING

Hannah

NEONATAL SURGICAL
CLINICAL NURSE SPECIALIST

I have always known surgical nursing was for me. I worked as a health care assistant on a children's surgical ward for a year prior to undertaking my nurse training.

The role of the CNS team is to support the care of families from antenatal/postnatal diagnosis to discharge home or transition into paediatric services. Every day is different as a Neonatal Surgical CNS, which is one of my favourite things about my job!
