CAREER FRAMEWORK FOR NEONATAL NURSING

Lisa

UNIT MANAGER

I started work on SCBU in a Band 4 role. I absolutely loved this role and quickly pursued a nursing qualification. My passion for neonates grew. I completed a Leadership course at Masters level, which gave me good skills to bring to our unit. My role is predominately non-clinical and includes the day-to-day management of the ward, including staffing, roster management, sickness and absence plus playing a big part in governance and patient safety.

I love the challenges that my role brings along with the pride in knowing I can support quality improvements that will help the families in our care.
